

Beware of phishing, don't take the bait!

These simple principles will help protect you...

Key indicators: sender, subject & body.

Don't run, open or download suspicious attachments.

Hover over a link to reveal its destination.

Phishing can also occur via a pop-up, social media or SMS.

Report and delete any suspicious emails.

Doubts? Contact the sender by another means.

Information security is everyone's responsibility.

For more details and tips on how you improve your security practise, Sign in at: <https://www.hutsix.io>

